

How to find us

By taxi - ask for the south side of Tower Bridge. Tower Bridge Court is the first building on your left hand side having crossed Tower Bridge.

Driving - our offices can be reached from both North and South without incurring the Congestion Charge. Car parking is available in Gainsford Street. This can be reached from the North by crossing Tower Bridge and turning left into Queen Elizabeth Street, take the third left turning into Curlew Street and Gainsford Street is the first on the right. It can be reached from the South, by travelling up Tower Bridge Road, turning left into Queen Elizabeth Street and left again into Tooley Street, crossing Tower Bridge Road and turning left into Boss Street. Then take right the first right into Queen Elizabeth Street, then the second left into Curlew Street and the first right into Gainsford Street.

Walking from Tower Hill underground station - walk over Tower Bridge. Tower Bridge Court is the first main building on the left-hand side of the south side of Tower Bridge.

Walking from London Bridge station - follow the signs for Hay's Galleria. Walk through Hay's Galleria and follow the Riverside Walk to Tower Bridge. Walk under the bridge and take the steps on the right-hand side that take you up onto Tower Bridge. Once at the top of the steps, turn left. Tower Bridge Court is the first main building on the left-hand side.
