TAYLOR YOUNG TO HOLD GLOBAL ECONOMIES AND INVESTMENT THEMES SEMINAR WITH PROFESSOR TIM CONGDON

Taylor Young Investment Management, the private client, pension and charities investment specialist, is to hold their global investment seminar at Armourers' Hall, 81 Coleman Street, London, EC2R 5BJ, on Wednesday 13 September 2006. The seminar has been set up for professional intermediaries including lawyers, accountants, trustees and IFAs.

The Seminar will run from 4.30pm with guest speakers Professor Tim Congdon* CBE and Founder of Lombard Street Research, starting the seminar at 5pm. Tim will be speaking on Global Economies whilst Peter Thomson, CEO and CIO of Taylor Young Investment Management, will be speaking on investment themes and the Taylor Young thematic process.

The seminar aims to highlight future Global Investment Themes which tie into the fundamentals of Taylor Young Investment Management's independent, research-led, thematic style. Through this style, mixing traditional asset classes of bonds, equities and cash with alternative investments, Taylor Young Investment Management has produced strong performance over one, three and five years.

All enquiries to be directed to Penrose Financial: 020 7786 4818.

* Professor Tim Congdon is one of Britain's leading economic commentators and the founder of Lombard Street Research. Between 1992 and 1997 he was a member of the Treasury Panel of Independent Forecasters (the so-called "wise men") which advised the Chancellor of the Exchequer on economic policy. In 1997 he was awarded the CBE for services to economic debate. Tim is the author of a number of books - the latest being Money and Asset Prices in Boom and Bust

Tim retired from Lombard Street Research in August 2005 to write his books on the relationship between money and the economy.
